

Patient Prescription Text Notifications

Athena released a patient notification feature that sends a SMS text message when medication or durable medical equipment (DME) are electronically prescribed.

In the fully HIPAA-compliant text messages received, you can:

- View the pharmacy and other relevant information for your prescriptions.
- Access educational content or drug pricing information, if available from drug manufacturers.
- Set pickup reminders for your prescriptions.

Sample text message.

